HUZZAH WINS THE AUBURN.

James Arthur's brown colt Huzzah, a four-year-old, carrying 98 pounds, won the stake event on yesterday's Washington Park program. In the Auburn Stakes, a selling affair of a mile and a sixteenth, he defeated eleven others, of which Flying Torpedo, 112 pounds, was the top weight. Sam Fullen, 104 pounds, was given a decided preference by speculators. He was favorite at all times, his support being particularly strong at post time. Schwalbe, 103, and Nitrate, 107, were the best backed of the others. Schwalbe, Gold Bell and Paul Whaley were prominent in the early running. On the backstretch Paul Whaley dropped back while Huzzah moved up and joined Schwalbe and Gold Bell. As they came around the upper turn Gold Bell drew clear and Huzzah, Schwalbe and the favorite ran on even terms. Rounding into the homestretch Huzzah went after Gold Bell and the race became a contest between these two. In a hard struggle through the last three-sixteenths Huzzah succeeded in overtaking Gold Bell and beating him by a nose. Sam Fullen was third at the head of the stretch and remained there to the end, finishing five lengths behind the first and second. Flying Torpedo, in a good position at all stages, and within striking distance when beginning the final quarter, had no mishaps.

Yesterday's was the third running of the Auburn Stakes, its record being now as follows:

Year.	Horse.	Wt.	Star's.	Value.	Time.
1901	W. J. Deboe	89	8	$2,635	1:49
1902	Flying Torpedo	106	7	2,675	1:52½
1903	Huzzah	98	12	2,755	1:48

Lucien Appleby, 110 pounds; Bragg, 110; Caviar, 114, and the three-year-old, Fore and Aft, 109 pounds, were the starters in the first race. The first-named was the favorite and was heavily backed. Fore and Aft had a following that considered him equal to conceding the weight and winning and backed him accordingly. Caviar, backed at 8 to 1, to win a large amount, flattered his backers for three-quarters of a mile and then gave way to Bragg and the favorite. Lucien Appleby was several lengths behind along the backstretch, but rapidly improved his position on the upper turn and was at Caviar's heels as the latter faced the stand. The finish was between Bragg and Lucien Appleby. Henry, on the favorite, bluffed and drew it too fine to suit the backers of the horse, and had a small margin in his favor at the end. Fore and Aft was last. It requires a good three-year-old to give away the weight he conceded and win. He is apparently overrated.

In the second race, five furlongs, for two-year-olds, Allista went to the front directly after the start and maintained a lead of from two to four lengths from the half mile ground to the deciding line. Marshal Ney, the favorite, and Frank Carr were being urged when three-eighths had been run.

Twelve selling platers went to the post in the fourth race, six furlongs, for three-year-olds and upward. Mary Glenn, owned by Gorman & Bauer, was backed as if she could not lose. Hart Dernham's Uranium, with L. Wilson in the saddle, also a medium of heavy backing, won all the way, finishing in an open gallop. Mary Glenn was never a contender. Sweet Billie was second and third to the last quarter, where she fell back. If You Dare, second entering the stretch, was beaten out by Avoid.

Some wise persons, among them Frank

Shaw, realized handsomely on the fifth race, one mile, with allowances, for three-year-olds, for which Collonade was an odds-on favorite. Big Ben, entered by Doc Streett and ridden by C. Gray, and a 60 to 1 chance at one period of the betting, was the "good thing." He won by half a length from Ed Corrigan's Serge, quoted at 5 to 1 in the post odds. S. S. Brown's Airlight was a fair third. Collonade led to near the half, where Big Ben collared him. A hundred yards farther along to the dismay of his backers, he faltered and went back into the bunch behind so quickly that it was thought he had broken down. Then he ran well again to the stretch, where he again reduced his speed and lost all chance of being a contender. Meanwhile Big Ben had obtained a lead of three lengths. Serge gained steadily from the middle of the upper turn to the stand. He caught the leader in the last sixteenth, but was unable to head him.

M. H. Tichenor & Co.'s colors were placed first in the closing race, three-quarters of a mile. They were carried by Semper Vivum, on which Helgesen had the mount. So close was the finish that many spectators expected to see the number of Fleuron and Bay Wonder posted as first and second. Semper Vivum had an open lead from the middle of the backstretch until well in the homestretch, when Flaunt challenged her. While the first and second were doing their best, Bay Wonder drew up and came near beating them. Muresca was the opening favorite. Semper Vivum, backed with thousands had the call at the close. Muresca was a close third beginning the final struggle, in which she weakened.

Dick Welles and Monsieur Beaucaire were exercised after the races yesterday evening. The former did three-quarters in 1:16, the other was given a strong gallop. Huachuca pulled up lame after having worked yesterday morning.

T. J. Gallagher.

OAKWOOD HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

Yesterday Secretary Howard announced his assignment of weights to the many horses engaged in the Oakwood Handicap. This is one of the oldest fixtures on the club's stake list and justly popular with the patrons of the track, as it has invariably furnished a deeply interesting contest. With fair weather and a good track a big field will go to the post next Saturday with a strong probability that the pride of the west, McChesney, will figure in the list. The weights are as follows:

Horses.	A.Wt.	Horses.	A.Wt.
Gold Heels	130	Picquart	102
McChesney	129	Prowl	102
Allan-a-Dale	120	The Giver	101

Time, 1:00½.

Winner—Ch. f, by Hastings—Lady Marian (trained by J. Hyland).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Marjoram looks and ran like a crack filly, led unextended throughout and finished easing up. There is room for vast improvement in view of her visible lack of condition. Sweet Tone was favored by the difficult going and was much the best of the others, but only went into prominence right at the end, where she finished with a tremendous rush. The Lady Rohesia was a distant third, just getting up. Ruth Parrish showed quick improvement. Hopeful Miss ran a dull race and was beaten early. Vagary could not run well in the heavy going. The beautifully-bred Fine Fleur, much on the big side and very green, was practically left.

Scratched—Indiscreet, 110.

Winner—B. h, by Albert—Bonnie Ola (trained by W. C. Rollins).

Went to post at 2:50. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Herbert easily ran past Locket when he was called on in the stretch and was much the best. Locket forced a hot pace for six furlongs and sustained his speed unexpectedly well, the deep mud particularly favoring him. Blackstock, on which Burns rode a waiting race, was always well up and running well in hand when he suddenly fell out of it on the far turn and after that labored awkwardly, but was slowly wearing down Locket at the end. Blackstock's running was peculiar and unsatisfactory and it looked as if he struck himself. Scratched—39793 Hermis, 126; 39769 Ethics, 107; 39793 City Bank, 107; 39843 Akela, 97; (39647)Agnes D., 95.

Winner—B. f, by Bassetlaw—Extract (trained by H. M. Mason).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Daisy Green stole a good lead on the first turn and practically forced the pace throughout, coming away unexpectedly well at the end. Her race was a remarkable improvement, particularly in stamina. Eugenia Burch, a big two-year-old and the crack filly of last year, has evidently not trained on and is a small three-year-old. She held on gamely at the end and gave evidence of being thoroughly fit, but failed in point of speed and was always under pressure. Dekaber caught Ada Nay tiring and outstayed her for third place. Ada Nay appears an improved filly, but is still on the big side and her lack of condition probably beat her, as she failed in the last furlong, where she seemed like a winner. Stolen Moments was badly ridden, ran out on the first turn, was slipping and sprawling all over the track, ran only in spots and this race is not a true line on her.

Scratched—38906 Athlana, 111.

Overweights—Eugenia Burch, 1 pound.

Time, 5:57½.

Winner—Bk. c, by Charaxus—Helmwind (trained by H. Lewis).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The Virginian probably owes his victory to Ray's patience and superior jockeyship. He trailed for the first two miles and appeared a forlorn hope just before he moved up to the leaders, who unexpectedly tired and quit. Almanzor was excessively used in making the pace and held on in the most surprising fashion considering his ill-judged ride. Jim Newman displayed much speed and for half the journey took the fences kindly and well but, tiring at the end, blundered frequently in the stretch run. R. B. Sack was apparently going the easiest and safest of all when he fell at the end of a mile and a half. Scratched—35113 Daffadownilly, 146; 38110 Duke of Grassland, 146.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

R. K., Peoria, Ill. The bet was a draw if it was a parlay. That is, if it was to be paid at the track odds. If it was a combination, that is, if the rate of the odds was named and laid when the bet was made, it was a loser.

J. V. E., Chicago. Your parlay was a winner on Savable and Peter Paul and void as to Crest. It is to be paid as if it had been made on the two winners only.

J. C., Chicago. Reservation won the International Derby at the Grosse Pointe track, Detroit, June 8, defeating among others Claude and Fore and Aft.

A. B., Cincinnati, O. Odds quoted was correct, post time. Better could have been had earlier.

Turf Exchange, Pine Bluff, Ark. The bets stand. Mistakes as to distance do not invalidate wagers.

F. K., Chicago. As Mimosa did not win your parlay lost.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Very few persons who are in attendance at Washington Park are aware that a starting judge accompanies Starter Dwyer to the post in every race. With the inauguration of the no recall system of starting at Washington Park Mr. R. J. Havey was appointed starting judge in addition to being patrol judge, and it is his duty to report to the stewards all unruly actions of the jockeys while at the post and also to lend his aid to Starter Dwyer to effect a good start, by either cautioning a bad behaved rider or imposing a fine. The system is in vogue on all the New York tracks, also at Saratoga, and the Washington Park Club made a move in the right direction when it followed the example and all the other local tracks could also do so to advantage, as not only does it bring the starter and rider into a better understanding with each other, but it also lessens the fines imposed on the jockeys and the latter feature will eventually cause a rider to co-operate with the starter thereby insuring good starts.

S. W. (Doc) Streett stated after the victory of his horse Big Ben that he did not back him on account of the poor showing made by Sauerkraut in the two-year-old race. The two horses have been frequently worked together and to quote Streett: "There never was an arm's length difference between them going five furlongs." Big Ben has only been started once before yesterday, at St. Louis, on which occasion although away from the post poorly he showed a good turn of speed and finished second in a field of ten horses.

Jockey T. Knight, who rode Collonade, stated that his mount after running well up with his field in the early stages, refused to extend himself when he struck a strip of soft going on the backstretch, and while rounding the lower turn when he found the track crumbling under his feet, he sprawled badly and gave the impression that he had broken down.

Jockey L. Wilson was fined $50 for bad behavior while at the post for the fourth race.

Semper Vivum, the winner of the closing race, was bid up from $1,000, her entered price, to $2,000 by a person acting for E. R. Bradley. H. C. Riddle, the trainer for M. H. Tichenor & Co., retained his employer's property by an advance bid of $5.

Messrs. Corrigan and Wishard brought Dr. MacArthur, a prominent South Side physician, with them to the Garfield Park Sanitarium to hold a consultation with Dr. Harvey as to the necessity of performing an operation on jockey J. Reiff. After a careful and thorough examination of the injured jockey the doctors came to the conclusion that an operation would be unnecessary and gave out as their opinion that the rider was getting along very favorably and would be as well as ever before long.

The following horses will not be permitted to start until properly schooled to the barrier: Scipio, Peter J. Somero, Blackwolf, Satin Coat, Miss Veracity and General Steward. The latter started in the second race yesterday and refused to break when the starter released the barrier. Joe Martin is barred from starting during the current meeting on account of his fractious acting at the post.

J. C. Milam sold yesterday to H. Morgan the horses Harry Beck and Alice Morgan at private terms. The horses will be shipped to St. Louis and raced there.

Jockey Webb, who rode Jaubert in the fourth race, was unseated when his mount made a lunge while at the post, but held on to the bridle, preventing the horse from getting loose and running away.

..FOR SALE..

SALE OF THE TWO WELL KNOWN RACE HORSES, "PEACEFUL" AND "ETHYLENE," by Receiver of E. J. Arnold & Company.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE EASTERN DIVISION OF THE EASTERN JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF MISSOURI.

By order of the District Court of the United States, for the Eastern Division of the Eastern District of Missouri, the undersigned, Receiver of E. J. Arnold & Company, will sell at private sale, for cash, the following race horses, formerly the property of said Bankrupts:

PEACEFUL, b. g, by St. Florian—Imp Serene.
ETHYLENE, b. m, by Freeman—Ethel Gray.

The above horses will be sold at private sale for cash to the highest bidder on the 26th day of June, 1903, in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois. The undersigned will receive sealed bids for one or both of said horses, such bids to be accompanied by a certified check for twenty per cent. of the amount of the bid. Bids should be addressed to the undersigned in care of Felsenthal & Foreman, Attorneys at Law, Room 1203 Title & Trust Building, Chicago, Illinois, where the same will be opened at 9:30 o'clock in the forenoon of June 26th, 1903.

Under the order of the Court the Receiver has the right to reject any and all bids, if unsatisfactory, and to expose the horses at public sale on the same day in the City of Chicago, Illinois. And notice is hereby given that if the Receiver does not receive satisfactory sealed bids for either of said horses, he will sell the same at public auction at the Washington Park Race Track, in the City of Chicago, to the highest bidder for cash, at 12:00 o'clock, M., on the same day.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Lucien Appleby was not called on until entering the last quarter, where he moved up fast and under a mild drive, withstood Bragg's determined challenge in the final sixteenth. The latter ran a good race, standing a long stretch drive and responding with great gameness. He is at his best just now. Caviar showed much speed, but held it for only a little over six furlongs. Fore and Aft, tired in the last eighth.

Overweights—Fore and Aft, 2 pounds.

No show betting.

Winner—Ch. f, by Lamplighter—Mamie Fonso (trained by W. Mannion).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Allista was much the best. She displayed keen speed throughout and had plenty to spare at the finish. Marshal Ney stood a long stretch drive and showed gameness. Frank Carr finished fast. Triumvir tired when the pinch came. General Steward refused to break kindly with the field and was virtually left. The others were never serious contenders.

Scratched—(39836) Copperfield, 118.

Winner—Br. c, by Hermance—Complete (trained by J. Arthur).
Went to post 3:30. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Huzazh and Gold Bell fought it out sharply all through the final sixteenth, the former out-staying Gold Bell. Both horses met with no mishaps and ran to their best form. Sam Fullen appeared dangerous when running opposite the last sixteenth post, but tired palpably in the last one hundred yards and was eased somewhat at the finish. He swung wide turning for home, losing some ground. Flying Torpedo occupied a contending position turning for home toward the inside rail, but tired fast when the pinch came. The sharp pace told on him. Captain Arnold was shouldered out of position at the first turn and had no chance thereafter. Nitrate was never in the hunt. Schwalbe was a keen contender for seven and one-half furlongs. Paul Whaley settled her. Harry ran well for seven furlongs.

Scratched—39786 Rolling Boer, 107.

Overweights—Vincentes, 1 pound.

Winner—B. c, by Lamplighter—Elsie B. (trained by H. Dernham).
Went to post at 4:10. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Uranium ran to his best form. He easily ran Sweet Billie into early submission and then came away without much trouble, winning as his rider pleased. Avoid moved up rapidly turning for home and finished very fast. If You Dare was under keen pressure all through the final quarter and finished with determination. Gus Lanka ran a good race and will bear watching from now on. Sweet Billie showed early speed as usual. Mary Glenn was never a serious contender.

Time, 25 1/2, 50, 1:16 1/2, 1:43 1/2.

Winner—Br. g, by Ben Strome—Mint Julip (trained by S. W. Streett).
Went to post at 4:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Big Ben assumed an easy command after the first half had been run and had enough left to stand off Serge's determined challenge in the final hundred yards. The latter finished going fast, but was not good enough to beat the winner. Airlight stood a long stretch drive, but faltered in the closing strides. Sidney C. Love ran a dull race and can do better when fit. Collonade found the going just a shade too slow to suit him. Sir Hugh was badly cut off by Big Ben at the half-mile post, losing several lengths. This threw him out of the race and he never appeared to be able to rally.

Overweights—Big Ben, 3 pounds.

Went to post at 5:05. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same.

Semper Vivum displayed much speed, but tired in the last sixteenth and just lasted long enough under a powerful ride. Fleuron stood a long stretch drive and responded with great gameness. Bay Wonder came with a rush at the end and would have won in a few more strides. Eva's Darling made up much ground in the last quarter and finished going fast. Lovable tired fast when a furlong out. The going had dried out too much to suit Muresca. Fake appeared high in flesh when going to the post. The winner, entered for $1,000, was bid up to $2,005 and bought in.

Winner—B. f, by Lord Dalmeny—Baba Ala (trained by A. Bailey).
Went to post at 2:40. At post 4 minutes. Start good for all but De Leo. Won driving; second the same. Fade Meny, after displaying a lot of early speed, appeared to be beaten at the sixteenth post, but under careful handling lasted just long enough to win. Mrs. Grannan was weakly ridden and would have, in all probability, won with a stronger rider up. Ma'mselle had no mishaps and about ran her race. Plum Tart showed a flash of early speed, but tired fast when called on strongly. Animosity was away well at the start, but dropped out of contention quickly.

Time, 1:09.
Winner—Blk. f, by Albert—Luminosity (trained by W. C. Daly).
Went to post at 4:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Luminosity, lucky and superbly ridden, won a lucky victory right at the end, ran a game race and was favored by the going. Excentral came through on the stretch turn into the lead and a poor ride beat her, as she was the best and ran a steady and game race on her own courage. Lady Lavish singled herself out from the field in the last furlong and finished fast. Listaway was badly outrun after the first stride or two and, inadequately handled, made up ground at the end, but was swerving all over the course under Wilkerson's whipping efforts. Rector raced prominently for nearly five furlongs before he succumbed and is reported to be above the average. Jennico failed to stay and was always outrun.
Overweights—Sterling Belle, 1 pound.
Luminosity, show, 2 to 5. Excentral, show, 3 to 1. Lady Lavish, show, 2 to 1. Jennico, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 1:09.
Winner—Ch. f, by Knight of the Thistle—Belle Daly (trained by A. J. Joyner).
Went to post at 4:50. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Thistle Heather ran as if she far outclassed her field and came away from the others when straightened for home as if they were anchored. Short Cake was a prominent contender throughout and stood a long stretch drive gamely. Albertola showed speed, but failed to stay. Sir Walt was going well at the end. Lord Haven, a good looker, finished with a rush. Miss Shylock quit in the last quarter. Hoceo had no chance with the jockey and finished with plenty in reserve. Hylas suffered from an incompetent rider. He is a fine looker and was going great guns at the end.
Overweights—Short Cake, 1 pound; Gold Ribbon, 2.
Thistle Heather, show, 12 to 1. Short Cake, show, 4 to 1. Albertola, show, 4 to 5. Sir Walt, show, evens. Gold Ribbon, show, 4 to 5. Miss Shylock, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f, by Tristan—Fiona (trained by A. D. Prior).
Went to post at 5:10. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Florham Queen, quite keyed up today and a superior performer on the grass course, which is at the present time very wet and soggy, made her own pace on the inside, where the footing was best and was not forced along, the favorite and Flying Jib and even Andy Williams all running under a hard pull in behind and all timed their efforts too late, the winner suddenly stealing a long and winning lead when squared for home. Flying Jib was much the best, but suffered from another one of Redfern's over-confident and ill-judged rides. Making his move too late and compelled to make the turn on the extreme outside, he closed up with a rush and was fast wearing the winner down at the end. Hermis got away poorly and made a bad first turn, but quickly went up to the leader on the backstretch and kept her close, coming hard held to the stretch, where he fell away unaccountably. Today's showing was the poorest of all his races this year. Andy Williams was outstrutted in the last half and as the race was his race had no chance.
Florham Queen, show, evens. Flying Jib, show, out.

Winner—B. f, by Tehachapi—Mary Lillard (trained by R. E. Watkins).
Went to post at 2:33. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Bird Pond showed early speed and swung closely to the rail when entering the stretch and finished out fast and gamely. Tiomalne made up much ground and was closing up fast when Gullett let her swerve across the track and into close quarters behind the winner. She was evidently best. Little Pirate had full advantage of the bad riding in front, was held straight and ran in improved form. Lamont and Coral Leaf are good lookers and will probably do better. Sweet Myrtle showed the most early speed, but lost ground by a wide turn into the stretch.
Scratched—39772 Livy, 100; 39869 Lila Noel, 95.
Bird Pond, show, 1 to 2. Tiomalne, show, evens. Little Pirate, show, 8 to 1. Sweet Myrtle, show, 1 to 2.

Went to post at 3:35. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won handily; second easily. Cardwellton showed the most speed, finished fast and was vigorously ridden and best. Harry Griffith ran in improved form under judicious handling. Flash of Night was off badly and did not have a chance to use her superior speed. Maverick began slowly, but finished resolutely, as usual. Bal Poude showed speed for a half.

Winner—B. c, by Ornament—Landlady (trained by A. Turney).
Went to post at 3:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Briliants was given a vigorous ride and a tremendous finish. Weber clearly outrode Kelly in the stretch and the colt under him responded with great gameness. Matt Wadleigh ran his race, but Kelly was overconfident in the stretch and gave him a weak finish. Lord Hermence ran to his best form and finished pluckily. McGowan went well under a bad ride. Arnold K. and Rhyme and Reason were prominent for a half, then tired.
